C.M. redresses 14 complaints through Samadhan Online

The Chief Minister Shri Shivraj Singh Chouhan redressed 14 complaints through video conferencing under Samadhan Online programme at Mantralaya here today.

Shri Narbad Baiga of village Badagon in Umaria district complained that more amount is recorded in his loan book than he has taken as loan. The Chief Minister directed to lodge an FIR against concerning employee of the Regional Rural Bank. The Chief Minister also directed to provide assistance to Shri Baiga under National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme for construction of a well and to install a diesel pump on the well. The Chief Minister also directed to provide security to the complainant on his demand.

During the enquiry made by the Chief Minister from the district collector and the complainant it came to light that repayment of Rs. 1.90 lakh has also been shown in his account. According to the complainant he has received only Rs. 55 thousand as loan whereas the bank has shown Rs. 2.80 lakh given as loan to him.

On a complaint of Shri Pramesh Shrivastava of Sidhi district the Chief Minister directed the water resources department to give him compassionate appointment. The complainant informed the Chief Minister that his father was an assistant draftsman. On his death he was denied compassionate appointment rejecting his experience of photocopier issued by a private institute. He pointed out that when no government agency conducts a course of photocopy machine operator, then his certificate should be recognized and appointments be given in three other cases also.

Another complaint was made by the widow of late Shri Rammulal of village Piparia in Vidisha district, who had died in Karila Mata temple incident. The Chief Minister sanctioned an assistance of Rs. one lakh from the Chief Minister's discretionary fund to her. Shri Chouhan directed to sanction the case of Shri Gordhanlal Dangi under Kapildhara scheme in village Saikanpur in Khilchipur tahasil of Rajgarh district and to suspend the Gram Panchayat secretary and patwari. The sarpanch has already been removed from his post in this case. The Chief Minister directed to provide relief to Shri Hari Singh of village Alania in Shajapur district as per the provisions of the RBC and sanctioned Rs. ten thousand to him from his discretionary fund. He also directed for action against employees responsible for delay in payment of relief. He directed to pay within three months the compensation to Shri Prem Singh of village Avantipur Badodia in Shajapur district whose land had been acquired for road construction.

It was informed during the programme that encroachment has been removed from the service land of Shri Parvat, the Kotwar of village Manpur in Ujjain district. The Chief Minister directed to take necessary action against the encroacher and to recover the expenditure incurred on removing it. Similarly, the Chief Minister directed to secure justice to Shri Anjani Singh of village Bandaura in Singrauli district in a case pertaining to mutation. The Chief Minister also directed to take action as per rules on the complaints made by Sushri Meerabai Asati of Jabalpur and Shri Patiraj of village Bhuvansawangi in Chhindwara district.

On the application of Kum. Vani Trivedi of Jabalpur to consider waiver of tuition fee for her post graduation study under Gaon Ki Beti scheme the Chief Minister said that a policy decision would be taken soon in this regard. Shri Chouhan directed for redressal within 15 days of a complaint regarding payment of contractor of Gwalior Municipal Corporation by Shri Vimal Jain of Bhopal.

The Chief Minister directed the concerned collectors to allot land for construction of houses in Khandwa, Dewas and Katni municipal areas under Integrated Slums Housing Programme. He expressed displeasure over delay in distribution of honorarium and incentive amount to Anganwadi workers/ assistants in Sidhi, Jhabua and Badwani districts. He directed the collectors to ensure timely payment of the same. He directed to send him a report about recovery of honorarium paid to Anganwadi workers in Jhabua district.

Shri Chouhan took a serious view of delay in sanction of proposals of forest department pertaining to stop dam construction in Raisen, Sehore and Vidisha districts. Shri Chouhan directed to stop unnecessary correspondence and sanction the proposals by convening a meeting a concerning agencies.

Additional Chief Secretary Shri Pradeep Bhargava, Principal Secretary Public Works Department Shri P.D. Meena, Principal Secretary, Water Resources Department Shri Arvind Joshi, Principal Secretary, Urban Administration Shri Raghav Chandra, Principal Secretary Woman and Child Development Smt. Tinu Joshi, Chief Minister's Secretary Shri Iqbal Singh Bains, Secretary, Labour Shri P.D. Meena, Commissioner, Panchayat and Social Justice Shri M.
