

Training to Referral Judges through VC

A training session for about 200 Judges from Haryana & Punjab was organized through Video Conferencing on 07/02/2009 at Museum of the Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court at Chandigarh. The training was started by address from Hon'ble Mr. Justice M M Kumar and Hon'ble Mr Justice Mahesh Grover, who emphasized on the need of mediation & conciliation. The 17 Mediation & Conciliation Centres were inaugurated through Video Conferencing in the month of November 2008 by Hon'ble Mr Justice S B Sinha, Judge, Supreme Court of India.

View of the Video Conferencing Session

Masters Trainers from Delhi

Ms Anu Malhotra & Mr. Dharmesh Sharma, both AD&SJs, Delhi & Master Trainers, conducted the training Session for 17 Districts of Punjab from 10 AM to 1:30 PM and 19 Districts of Haryana from 4:30 PM to 7:30 PM through Video Conferencing. The speakers covered the topics on Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) & its relevance, Importance of Referral Judges, Different kinds of ADRs, benefits of Mediation, Guidelines for Referral Judges, and Categories of cases referable to mediation. Do's & Don't for Referral Judges.

At the end of each session, District wise Question & Answer Session was held. It was first time that such training was conducted through Video Conferencing in Punjab & Haryana High Court. It saved lots of time, money and efforts. During the vote-of-thanks by Registrar (Administration), efforts made by NIC for providing VC facility were highly appreciated. The VC was provided through NIC-HQ MCU with NIC Centres in Punjab and through SWAN MCU with DC Offices in Haryana. NIC-Punjab & Haryana High Court Centre, Chandigarh under NIC-Haryana State Centre, coordinated this activity.